OVERTIME

11.—(1) In this section,

(a) "overtime" means a period of work computed to the nearest half hour and,

(i) performed on a regular working day in addition to the regular working period and consisting of at least one-half hour, or

(ii) performed on a holiday or other day that is not a regular working day;

(b) "stand-by time" means a period of time that is not a regular working period during which a public servant on written instructions from an official of his department keeps himself available for a recall to work.

(2) Overtime and stand-by time shall be approved in writing by the deputy minister or an official of his department who is authorized by him for the purpose and the approval shall be given before the overtime is performed or the stand-by time is arranged, but in an emergency where it is not practicable to approve overtime before it is performed or stand-by time before it is arranged, the overtime or stand-by time shall be approved immediately after the approving official receives notice that overtime has been performed or a public servant has been on stand-by time.

(3) Where a public servant is required to report for any period of work on a holiday or other day that is not a regular working day, he is entitled to a credit of a minimum of four hours of overtime, but where the public servant performs work for more than four hours after being so required to report for work, he is entitled to a credit of a minimum of eight hours for overtime.

(4) Where a public servant is recalled to work on a regular working day after leaving his place of employment at the end of the regular working day, he is entitled to a credit of a minimum of four hours of overtime.

(5) Where a public servant performs three or more continuous hours of overtime in which is included a usual meal time, he shall be paid an allowance for a meal of $1.50 unless,

(a) the meal is otherwise provided; or

(b) he is otherwise entitled to recover an allowance in respect of the meal, but no such allowance shall be paid after the 31st day of March, 1965.

(6) Where it is necessary for a public servant to travel to a place that is not his regular work location for the purpose of attending to perform overtime work, the time necessarily spent travelling to and from such place may be included for the purpose of computing overtime if,

(a) travelling is not part of the regular duties of the public servant; and

(b) the official authorizing the overtime has specified the work location in writing.

(7) Where a public servant is required to be on stand-by time after the 31st day of March, 1964, he is entitled to an overtime credit of one-third of his stand-by time, but where such stand-by time is less than the number of hours in the public servant's regular working day, he is entitled to an overtime credit of one-third of the number of hours in his regular working day.

COMPENSATING LEAVE FOR OVERTIME

11a.—(1) This section applies to a public servant for whom an attendance record is maintained under subsection 1 of section 6 other than a public servant of a classification set out in Schedule 7.

(2) Subject to subsection 3, a public servant to whom this section applies is entitled to one hour of compensating leave for each hour of overtime that stands to his credit in accordance with section 11.

(3) A public servant is entitled to 1½ hours of compensating leave for each hour of overtime performed on or after the 1st day of April, 1965.

(4) Compensating leave may be taken at a time determined by the deputy minister or an official of his department who is authorized by him for the purpose, and the deputy minister or official shall give the public servant notice of the determination at least one day before the day on which the leave is proposed to be taken.

PAY FOR OVERTIME

(4) A public servant shall be paid for overtime performed on or after the 1st day of April, 1965, an amount equal to 1½ times his hourly rate of salary calculated in accordance with subsection 5.

(5) The hourly rate of salary of a public servant shall be in accordance with a table of hourly rates of salary issued from time to time by the Commission and shall be calculated,

(a) by dividing by 261 the annual rate of salary that he is receiving at the time the overtime is performed; and

(b) by dividing the quotient obtained in clause a by the number of hours in his regular working day.

(6) Except where a credit for overtime is less than eight hours, a public servant shall be paid quarterly for overtime that stands to his credit and he is entitled to be paid at the end of the fiscal year for all overtime that stands to his credit, notwithstanding that such credit is less than eight hours.
